ROCK BAND BOSTON TO PERFORM IN FREEDOM HALL

LOUISVILLE, KY (April 20, 2015) Back by popular demand, Tom Scholz' band BOSTON will embark on another highly anticipated tour, following a successful run last year. Iconic classic rock band Boston will perform in Freedom Hall at the Kentucky Exposition Center on June 30 at 8 p.m.

Always a huge crowd pleaser with their high-energy stage show, out-of-this-world sound, and remarkable musicianship and singing, BOSTON prides itself on performing a totally live show without the use of prerecorded music or technical enhancements, delivering the extraordinary sound that is faithful to their studio recordings.

BOSTON became an iconic classic rock fixture when they joined the music scene with their self-titled album in 1976. With over 17 million copies sold, Boston generated hits such as "More Than a Feeling," "Peace of Mind," and "Smokin'," rock staples that are still in heavy rotation today. Their second album, Don't Look Back was another chart-topper that confirmed their place in rock history, followed by Third Stage, which hit #1 on the charts, with the top single of 1986, "Amanda." With over 31 million albums sold to date, BOSTON has stood the test of time, as evidenced by live audiences that span generations.

Fans can expect to hear all the classic songs they have grown to love, and will be treated to some new additions to their set list based on recent requests. Guests will be treated to wild Hammond organ work, soaring harmony guitars, and exceptional vocal arrangements, as well as BOSTON's unique visual stage presentation and plenty of extra-terrestrial sounds heard nowhere else on Earth.

Tickets range from $40 to $79 and go on sale Friday, April 24 at 10 a.m. and are available at the Freedom Hall and Kentucky International Convention Center Ticket Offices and all Ticketmaster outlets. Purchase online at www.ticketmaster.com or charge by phone at 1-800-745-3000.
